TEN DOLLARS REWARD FOR A STOLEN HORSE,—On TEN DOLLARS REWARD FOR A STOLEN HORSE,—On Thursday morning last, a Horse was stolen from the wagon of the subscriber, on the Richmond and Lynchburg road, between the city of Richmond and the county of Powhatan. The animal is a large bay horse, with a scar on his right shoulder, and his right hind leg near the knee. He has very little hair on his tail, and refuses to stand by a halter, or to be handled about the head and ears. The theft was committed about its miles from Richmond, and the probability is, that the thief has made his way to Richmond or Petersburg. The above mentioned reward will be given for the recovery of the horse, and any information concerning him, will be thankfully received.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

GREENBRIER COUNTY At an adjourned meeting of the Democracy of Greenbrier county, held at the old Court-house, in Lewisburg, on the 27th day of July, inst, the following and resolutions were unanimously adopted. As the Presidential Election is approaching; an elecon, involving in its consequences the great principles n which our government is administered; an election, which will determine whether those great and salutary principles, for which the Democratic Republicans have ver contended, shall continue to prevail and diffuse their blessings, like the showers of Heaven, over all who desire equal laws and equal privileges, or whether he political destinies of our beloved country shall be transferred to and controlled by monied corporations and factions, united against the Republican administration of Mr. Van Buren, it becomes us, as freemen, appreciating our liberties, and ardently desiring the tinuance and ascendency of our Democratic Republican principles, to prepare ourselves for the contest. We see the most unprecedented and unhallowed efforts making to elevate to the Presidency William H. Harison; a man, whose opinions on some of the most deepinteresting and exciting topics of the times are veiled in mystery and doubt; a man, who, as if con-scious of his incapacity as a statesman, to withstand the fiery ordeal through which his opinions and principles must necessarily pass at the bar of pub-Aggust 7
